Mark Fedosiewich, President and CEO of Vior, commented: "We are very pleased to announce this Agreement with an experienced, quality partner like Harvest Gold, who will ensure that the Mosseau Project receives the attention it deserves to fully uncover its gold potential. While Mosseau holds much exploration prospectivity, it has not been given the exploration commitment required to fully realize its potential, due to Vior's focus and efforts at our flagship Belleterre Gold and Skyfall Nickel Projects. This partnership ensures that the Mosseau Project is explored and developed, allowing Vior shareholders to benefit from the potential discovery of new gold deposits."
